The Way Of The Disciple

Synopsis

This book explores in depth six Gospel scenes so as to discover in these the essential elements of Christian discipleship. It describes the basic requirements for receiving the Word of God effectively in our hearts: namely, that we "become wet clay in God's hands", so that God can impress upon us any form he chooses. It also contemplates the vital position of the Mother of the Lord in the life of his disciples. The author shows that the call to discipleship is above all an invitation to intimate companionship with Jesus, as we read in Mark: "Jesus called to him those whom he desired | in order that they might be with him" (3:14-15). What we normally call the "active apostolate" can never be an end in itself, but only the fruits of a life of prayer and adoration. These are what must be at the heart of a disciple's life, which can never be swept up by mere activism.

Jan 26th 2011 Update on my previous review for anyone interested:I have just finished this work. I took my time before the Blessed Sacrament in Adoration with each line. My soul has been moved, refined, changed by Mr. Merikakis' thoughts, elucidations, his prayer that bathed this little book. I am eternally grateful. I have purchased many (10 or more)to give as gifts.If you only read one of his works, read this one. It is his easiest to understand, it is sublime yet somehow earthy....a little of Heaven and Earth in your hands, savored in the heart.- Peace of Jesus Christ, King of Kings, Lover beyond the grasping, to each one of you.- debbyold review: posted in the Fall 2010If you have never read Erasmo, you have no idea what I mean by my "title." This man has a mind that is reminiscent of the great medieval Renaissance minds....lucid, visionary, erudite yet comprehensible. Now you shall surely laugh at what I am about to say! I have read only the very beginning of this particular work of his, and for some reason that I cannot remember, I read his translation of a meditation on the Annunciation at the end of this book first. His words penetrated my heart so deeply that I cannot get past them, but have re-read them again and again. My goal is to read this little book for my Advent devotion. I had previously chosen something else, but it would seem that my dear Mother Mary would have me savor this one. Maybe She will use this book to cultivate within my soul a more suitable place for the coming of Her Son the King. Maybe I will be more His own disciple. I pray so! (wouldn't that be a lovely gift for Him?) I pray for this man Erasmo.
