Customer Reviews

This is similar to the maps of locations where the map is pictorial in nature. While it is meant for a younger audience, the material is equally as useful for the older student learning about Ancient Rome. I am using it with 10 and 13 year old boys.

I thought that this book had so much information, it was unbelievable. In school, I am doing a project on Ancient Roman Education, and I got most of my info from this book. It's wonderful!
