This book is exactly what I was looking for! The pictures are colorful and are already catching the attention of my 3 month old...it has some of the basic stories that I wanted to use to start introducing my baby to the Bible...a good choice!

Wow, this is so much nicer than I expected! Beautifully padded cover, nice thick pages and 12 stories in all! The stories are short, but the pictures are very colorful and should appeal to little ones. Seems to be well-made. Should hold up a long time! I highly recommend this!

This is for twins yet to be born but I read through it and it is well done. I'm hoping that one day the boys will tell me the stories.

Very nice quality book. This arrived quickly and in very good condition. Beautiful, thick pages with wonderful Bible stories to start teaching children. It has beautiful pictures and seems like it will hold up nicely for a young child to keep for a long time.

Cute sturdy little board book with a cushioned cover. The stories are very simplified and skip over the details of these stories that small children would not understand. Each story gets one page and a picture. The illustrations are fun. Bought it for a baptism so it'll be perfect.

I purchased this for my Godson as part of his baptism present. The book is perfect. I love the board book and his parents also loved the book. I can't wait to read him the stories as he grows up!

Nicely illustrated with simple Bible related stories for little ones. I haven't reviewed the theology yet but I'm sure it will be a good intro for my grandson.

The book is good, the bible stories accurate and colorfully illustrated but each story is so short (one page), I would prefer less of a summary. The binding is strong but one of the angles start to peel off after about 3 month of daily usage. I knocked a couple of stars because the little one just does not like it... and this is what matters! She prefers Big red barn, goodnight monkey and good night moon by far! Maybe because each story stops so quickly that she does not get to know the characters, even after many nights.
