As an author currently working on a manuscript, serious research material is hard to find. I've come across my fair share of hair brained stories and misconstrued events. The Books of Enoch is very well written and easily supported with reference materials that stand on their own. I bought this book because borrowing it just wouldn't do. I'm proud to say it has been permanently added to my research library. If you have questions about angels and demons, this book is a must read. I highly recommend it!

I started by reading the 3rd Book of Enoch, the Hebrew book, which is a revelation given to Rabbi Ishmael between 90 and 130 AD. The book was not written by Enoch himself, but it is the revelation given to this Rabbi. The book is presented in its entirety. Enoch is called Metatron, and he has 70 names just as the Almighty G-d according to Jewish Mysticism - Kaballa. It is an interesting revelation and it presents Enoch as an angel that it is in charge of all the angels in heaven, this is also mentioned in the 1st and 2nd book of Enoch. Enoch is taken to heaven at the same time that the Shekina (Glory of G-d) of G-d in the Garden of Eden is taken into heaven. I enjoyed this book, and it revealed much of what happens in heaven, the orders of the angels, and the princes that have the name of G-d at the end of their names. How there is a Sanhedrin in the heaven, and what G-d gave Israel to do in this earth is a foreshadow of what is done in the heavens. The 2nd Book of Enoch or the Slovanic Enoch is a short book and it reveals the ascension of Enoch progressively through multiple heavens and he is transfigured into an angel and given the secrets of creation. It also reveals that a woman in her old age by the name of Nir the wife of Noah's younger brother gives birth to Melchizedek without intercourse (miraculous birth) while about to die and the boy is born with the appearance of a 3 years old child and the symbol of the priesthood on his chest. First Enoch - talks about the fall of the watchers - angels, that came down to earth and had children with the daughters of humans and begotten giants upon the land. The land could not sustain these giants and they started to eat the flesh of men. They perverted mankind and many animals. G-d intercedes by destroying the children of these fallen angels by turning them against each other and by the flood to cleanse the earth of their seed. These angels were the ones that taught mankind how to make swords and shields for war, witchcraft, how to write, put makeup on, and all kinds of evils. It mentions one called "The Elect One" and "the Son of Man." It reveals future prophecies that must come to pass before the great judgement of G-d.

The book of Enoch will not take you away from the bible but actually confirms it I dont know why they ever took it out of the bible it explains alot of questions people might have on Giants and the nephilim angels and stuff. also in this day and age could even explain what happens when we mess with DNA SERIOUSLY YOU NEED THIS BOOK

I had read an earlier copy of the the Book of Enoch but this one was written in a easier to read format. It also contained more information than the previous version. I found it very informative and easy to understand although Enoch's visions were difficult to comprehend just what he saw.

As I am reading 4 books at once, this book is extremely helpful to me in my quest to understand, research, and breakdown Bible prophecy, timelines, facts and what we have to expect in the upcoming future. My faith is rock-hard as is my thirst for Biblical knowledge. Everything that has been written in the Bible can be found to have already transpired, (prophecy, good vs. evil, versage that was written long ago has been shown to be true and factual, deaths of major heads of countries, the apostles words spread), and to have the knowledge that the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ our Lord was written about PRIOR to its happening in this book, also backs up others I have read, such as the Dead Sea Scrolls, the "Giants that roamed the earth", my personal spirituality, and great joy about Angels who have been sent to the earth to also spread positivity, as well as those who have done wrong. I have just begun this book, and keep the Bible, my Concordance, and Prophecy books handy to cross-reference. To me, this is a book long overdue and I am excited to be reading it and learning more about how/why/when/what the Bible is about and how it relate to us as human beings with free will. Excellent read in understandable writing by this author.

If the reader wants to have a more in depth description of Genesis and the history of angels this is the book to read.

This is a great book, well written, and very informative, as well as having the three Enoch books in one, a great price, letters large enough to read unlike some large quantity books
