Voices From The City: Issues And Images Of Urban Preaching-paperback

Synopsis

Communicating the Gospel in the midst of diversity, poverty, crime, and complex challenges requires a contagious passion for the Word and excitement for proclaiming it. This book offers pastors who minister to urban congregations ways to connect the Word of God to the urban experience. Excerpts from interviews with ministers provide added insights into the urban dynamic that shapes these black, white, Hispanic, and Asian communities. Also included are sample sermons for multiethnic audiences, which rejoice that "God is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all that you ask or think" (Eph 3:20).
