Customer Reviews

My son (4 years old) and I have enjoyed many of the previous Dino books (Dino-Hockey (Carolrhoda Picture Books), Dino-Soccer, Dino-Baseball (Carolrhoda Picture Books)) by Wheeler, as well as her book Boogie Knights (Richard Jackson Books (Atheneum Hardcover)). This book was a great addition to the series. Again the Meat-Eaters and the Grass-Clippers take the court in competition to see who will win! With fun rhymes and wonderful pictures this was another great book in the series. My son was very engaged in the book and said that "It was wonderful!" This whole series of books has been wonderful and combines two things kids (especially little boys) love: sports and dinosaurs. I highly recommend this book if you have a preschooler who is a fan of sports and/or dinosaurs. It is written in rhyme and all of the dinosaur names are highlighted with which team they are on (meat-eater or veggie-eater). A great way for young kids to learn some of the rules behind sports and to learn about dinosaurs.
